The Stories of Pro Bono in Tennessee

"I grew up border line poor and I know that there is a personal satisfaction as a lawyer helping someone who is desperate that is different. You won't know the feeling until you try." --DR

"As a family law attorney, it is always gratifying to assist a family in need. To feel that one has improved the lives of others is great." --MJM

"Finding the right opportunity that fits your experience, practice area, and schedule are key. I encourage you to seek out opportunities in your area that you can regularly commit to because it is very rewarding to help a community over a period of time." --JD
